OPEN-EAR DESIGN
They clip to the ear without covering the ear canal

Wireless earbuds with an open ear-clip design: they hook onto the ear without blocking it, so you still hear your surroundings. Bluetooth 5.4 with a range of up to 22 metres, five hours of playback and a 380 mAh case with a battery display.

WHAT IT SOLVES

Light, secure and without shutting out the world

Open ear-clip
They hook onto the edge of the ear instead of going into the canal: nothing presses inside the ear.

Bluetooth 5.4
A current version of the standard, with up to 22 metres of range for music and 15 for calls.

5 hours and a 380 mAh case
Five hours of playback per charge, which completes in two hours inside the case.

Battery display
The case shows the exact percentage on an LED display and charges over USB Type-C.

The open-ear design: unlike an in-ear earbud, this one does not go into the ear canal: it rests on the edge of the ear and leaves it clear. That is why you can still hear cars when running or someone approaching at the office. In exchange, it does not isolate from noise: for a flight or a noisy environment, another format is better.

WHERE IT DELIVERS

Built for moving with music and staying alert

SPORT

Running without losing your hearing on the street

The hook holds without pressing and the ear stays free, so you hear cars and bikes when training outdoors.

- Clip fastening
- Clear ear canal
- 5 hours per charge

OFFICE AND CALLS

Without disconnecting from the team

Listen to music or take a call while still hearing whoever comes to the desk, and without taking them off to answer.

- Touch controls
- 15 m range on calls
- Bluetooth 5.4

EVERYDAY USE

The case tells you how much is left

LED display with the case's battery percentage and USB Type-C charging, with the cable included in the box.

- 380 mAh case
- USB-C charging
- 12-month warranty
